Walk for fun and a good cause! All registration proceeds will benefit the Aleh Negev School for Special Needs, a state-of-the-art Rehabilitative Village situated in the Negev that will meet the needs of the severely disabled by providing high-level medical and rehabilitative care. Organizations can have their members walk to raise money for their organization. Registered walkers can collect pledges on a per mile basis with 100% of all funds raised from these donors going directly to their organization.
