

CLASSROOM ISRAEL

December 19 - 29, 2016

AMHSI PROFESSIONAL: David Mitchell

Explore and discover Israel's past, present and future with the educators from Alexander Muss High School in Israel. Students at heart and of all ages are invited to tour Israel and learn of the country's history, along with cultural and technological advancements, through AMHSI's model of using the land as the classroom.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

This tour will feature tiyulim (hikes) that connect important lessons to the places where you are standing.

- You'll reenact important battles on archeological sites!
- You'll explore current events and debate your position on how best to continue.
- Feel like a kid again!

Looking for a different way to explore our homeland? Trying to find interesting opportunities for learning that can fit into a busy schedule? Have you ever thought to yourself, "I wish I was a teenager so that I could go to AMHSI!" If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, Classroom Israel is the trip for you.

PRICE INFORMATION:

- Price (based on double occupancy) : $3,400 per person*
- Single Supplement: $727

* Airfare not included. This price covers all ground transportation in Israel, including arrangements to and from Ben Gurion Airport, entrance fees, meals according to the itinerary, overnight accommodations and educator. Price does not include meals when itinerary states "on own," medical insurance, tip for driver.

Register Today: jnf.org/classroomisrael

For more information, please contact Jordana Bickel or Hindie Fried at 212.472.9300 x185.

