

Introduction

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Now it's my privilege to introduce you to a hilarious and insightful man...

He is an Israeli-American comedian whose perspectives have been featured on Israeli television and radio, and in outlets such as USA Today, Time, BBC Radio, The Atlantic, and the Times of Israel.

He has led cultural training workshops for Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs and hi-tech companies.

Since making aliyah in 2006, he has been called on by Jewish National Fund, and other Jewish organizations, to share his hilarious insights into cultural differences as he translates both the challenges and marvels of life in Israel.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome the always entertaining, Benji Lovitt.

100 Word Bio:

Benji Lovitt is an Israeli-American comedian whose perspectives have been featured on Israeli television and radio, and in outlets such as USA Today, Time, BBC Radio, The Atlantic, and the Times of Israel.

Lovitt has led cultural training workshops for Israel's Ministry of Foreign Affairs and hi-tech companies.

Since making aliyah in 2006, Benji has been called on by Jewish National Fund, and other Jewish organizations, to share his hilarious insights into cultural differences as he translates both the challenges and marvels of life in Israel.

50 Word Bio:

Benji Lovitt is an Israeli-American comedian who has performed around the world. Since making aliyah in 2006, Benji has been called on by Jewish National Fund, and other Jewish organizations, to share his hilarious insights into cultural differences as he translates both the challenges and marvels of life in Israel.