

Elliot Jager Introduction

Ladies and gentlemen, it is now my privilege to introduce you to an influential thought leader in the Jewish world...

He is an accomplished journalist, who is a senior editor at The Jerusalem Report, was an editorial page editor at The Jerusalem Post as well as the founding managing editor of Jewish Ideas Daily, and regularly writes expert commentary on Israeli and Jewish political affairs...

He is a versatile and creative author, whose poignant memoir, The Pater: My Father, My Judaism, My Childlessness, explores his journey to discover the meaning of life without children, and whose latest book, The Balfour Declaration: 67 Words, 100 Years of Conflict, brings to life the extraordinary personalities of World War I and unpacks the backstory of today's headlines on the Arab-Israeli conflict...

And he is a passionate Zionist activist, who served on the boards of Americans for a Safe Israel and the Manhattan Region of the Zionist Organization of America, was advertising director of the Coalition for Israel, and was a staffer at the Tikvah Fund.

Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome a master of the written word, Elliot Jager.
